

Golden Career Strategies

Terry Hollon
Senior Consultant

Terry W. Hollon brings strong management and organizational expertise to his interaction with clients. With a broad range of experience in the government, service, healthcare, manufacturing, telecommunications, and transportation sectors, he has worked with executives and managers to identify quality, service, sales, and human resource productivity needs and has provided appropriate consulting and training resources to meet those needs. He has successfully assisted his clients in developing solutions that address critical business and organizational issues for over twenty years. Some of his representative client work includes: Quality Improvement Systems, Customer Satisfaction Training, Consultative Sales Systems, Educational Systems Design, Identification/Assessment and Executive Coaching.

Professional Background:

Principal founder, Hollon Associates, LLC - full-service consulting firm assisting clients with their needs in Attracting, Selecting, Managing, Developing, and Retaining people.

Senior Vice President and General Manager, Manchester, Inc. - Managed executive leadership development, executive coaching, and career transition services for a targeted group of organizations.

Divisional Vice President, The Forum Corporation - Managed business development and consulting/training service delivery to clients, in a 12-state geography.

Regional Vice President, ODI - organizational assessment (TQM), managerial effectiveness, process improvement, design, and development of customized training curricula.

Director, Psychological Services, Spartanburg, SC schools

Education:

B.S. Ed. Secondary Education

M.S. Ed. Psychometry, Kappa Delta Pi

Ed. S. School Psychology, Phi Delta Kappa

Georgia Southern University